JungleScout Chrome Extension

The JungleScout Chrome extension is a product research tool that instantly shows you data for every product on an Amazon page such as estimated monthly sales, FBA net proceeds and more.

You can get the JungleScout Chrome Extension for a discount using our link at: http://www.junglescout.com/dansdiscount

The JungleScout Chrome extension is a one-time purchase

*You do not need the JungleScout Web App subscription

You can get Sales Estimates from JungleScout for free at junglescout.com/estimator

Keepa - Amazon Price Tracking Chrome Extension

For many products, Keepa also tracks if and when Amazon has sold the product and the sales rank history of the product. This information is displayed in an easy to understand chart.

Download Keepa at: https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/keepa-amazon-price-tracke/neebplgakaahbhdphmkckjjcegoiijjo?hl=en

TWF Buy Box Scope

This extension is actually our own. It is one we have developed for use in our own business, and then we made it publicly available.

It creates a box that pulls up the ASIN, category and sales rank to the top of the product page to save you scrolling, and it also lists all FBA sellers that priced within 2% of the buy box.

You can download it here:

DS Amazon Quick View

This an app that displays rank information and category information in the Amazon search page saving you time to see if a product is even worth your click.

You can download it here:

CamelCamelCamel Bookmarklet

This is a backup for Keepa.

Keepa does not display historical rank information for all products. For the most part, CamelCamelCamel does. This is simply a button that will auto-search any product you are looking at on Amazon on camelcamelcamel.com

You can add the bookmarklet here:
